U.S. Rejects Red Bid For U.N. Summit

Lodge Terms Call For Disarmament Parley 'Frisivolous'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A U.S. spokesman Monday night rejected a Soviet call for an all-U.N. summit parley on disarmament as a "typically specious and frivolous maneuver." But some diplomats at the U.N. still hoped it might bring President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev together at the conference table.

Chief U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge brushed off the Soviet proposal at a news conference at the summer White House in Newport, R.I. Presumably he spoke with the President's authorization.

The Soviet proposal accompanied a Kremlin objection of the American proposal that the 82-member U.N. Disarmament Commission be called into session this month. Lodge said the Soviet reply showed the Soviets "really don't want disarmament."

"The United States made its proposal in good faith," Lodge declared, but the Soviet counter proposal amounts to "a cynical attempt to prevent progress."

Soviet Ambassador Leonid D. Morozov called for the summit disarmament meeting in a letter Monday to Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico, chairman of the disarmament commission.

Rejecting Padilla Nervo's call for a commission meeting Aug. 15, Morozov asserted that disarmament talks could only be successful if held at the proper level.

"The Soviet government believes that personal participation of the heads of government of member states of the United Nations in the discussion of the disarmament problem at the General Assembly would answer this purpose best of all," the Soviet letter said.

Diplomats at the U.N. were intrigued by the reversal of Khrushchev's stand after the abortive Paris conference that he would not negotiate with the United States at the summit until Eisenhower left the White House.

Morozov asserted that the U.S. proposal for a disarmament commission session was inspired by "considerations connected with the internal situation in the United States."

It said the U.S. government wanted the meeting "to conceal its unwillingness to achieve an agreement on this question."

Cubans Silent On Replacing Ailing Castro

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban government kept silent today on who will take over control from ailing Fidel Castro, but the best bet appeared to be his anti-American younger brother, Raul.

Authorities maintained tight-lipped secrecy following Monday's disclosure that the ailing Prime Minister had laid aside his duties after his doctor ordered him to take a complete rest—"both physical and mental."

Informed sources said Castro, 33, had been finally convinced that he must stop all work to hasten recovery from his three-week illness, officially described as a lung infection. Maj. Raul Trillo, one of two army doctors treating the prime minister, announced he was taking a complete rest, "both physical and mental."

(Some Latin American quarters in Washington speculated that the announcement was meant to prepare Cuba for the Prime Minister's indefinite retirement from public life. There have been persistent reports in Havana—denied by sources close to the Cuban government—that Castro underwent a rectal operation and was found to be suffering from cancer.)

Fidel soon after he came to power officially designated his younger brother as his political heir.

Raul, 28, Cuba's defense minister, has just returned from official visits to the Soviet Union, Communist Czechoslovakia and the United Arab Republic.

Before anyone takes over from Castro, the Cabinet presumably will meet under President Osvaldo Dorticos and order the change. So far there was no indication any such meeting had been called.

Quiet Integration

Negroes And Whites Dine At Miami Lunch Counters

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida's first race-mixing at lunch counters occurred quietly at four downtown variety stores in Miami, the state's largest city.

There was no advance public notice and no reported disturbance as small groups of Negroes quietly took seats Monday at counters where their sit-in demonstrations a few months ago caused furor and shutdowns.

Spokesmen for the city, Negro groups and store managements were reluctant to discuss the matter. Most of those who did asked that their names not be used.

A Negro who lunched at the F.W. Woolworth store lunch counter denied his group was acting by a concerted plan. Asked about the future, he said, "I imagine now that some have gone, they'll go again."

An executive in Grant's said 25 Negroes lunched there without causing disorder. The other stores were S. H. Kress and Walgreen's. Farris Bryant, segregationist who as Democratic nominee is expected to become Florida's next governor, said, "The law grants to every merchant the right to serve whomever he pleases and to refuse service to whomever he pleases."

Gov. LeRoy Collins, who said several months ago that he thought it morally wrong for a store to welcome Negro trade in some departments and bar it in others, said, "I understand this developed without fanfare and that is the way I think it should be left."

Durham, N.C., became the seventh city in that state to integrate lunch counters. The action came on a plan worked out by the mayor's committee on human relations which called for gradual opening of public eating facilities to Negroes.

There was no fanfare Monday as Woolworth and Kress variety stores and Walgreen's drug store opened up lunch counters to Negroes. There were few Negro patrons and no disorder.

Blows were struck in Petersburg, Va., as a siege of sit-ins to force integration of lunch counters continued. Police said John Panasuk Jr., assistant manager of Grant's, and James A. Mayfield, a Negro teacher, were charged with disorderly conduct after a brief scuffle.

Negro leaders said the sit-ins would continue although 15 arrests Sunday and 25 Monday would pave the way toward a test of Virginia's stiff, new anti-trespassing laws.

The Rev. Robert G. Williams, head of a Negro organization promoting the demonstrations, said, "Now we have it (the new law) in court and that's what we sought."

Second Highest Of Year

City Construction Spurts To $247,825 During July

Spurred by construction of 12 new homes, including 10 in a new residential development, and a new service station in the East End, new construction and remodeling jobs authorized in July climbed to $247,825 — the second highest total of the year.

It represented an increase of $213,075 over the $34,750 approved in June, and ranked second only to May when the permits totaled $568,045, including $550,000 for a new Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Ten of the 38 permits issued by Mayor Bert H. Goodballe's office last month went to George F. Bright, city realtor, for permission to erect 10 new $20,000 homes on Bright View Dr. on the North Side.

The Standard Oil Co. received a permit for a new service station at Mulberry St. and Pennsylvania Ave. estimated to cost $20,000. It will replace the existing station, which will be razed, the company said.

St. Clair Township's population rose 2,035 in the past decade, to a total of 5,721 residents, according to a preliminary report from a Bureau of Census official.

The 1950 population was 3,686.

Surprises Set By President For Campaign

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—The summer White House indicated today President Eisenhower is planning some surprises in his personal campaign to elect the Republican ticket.

Eisenhower discussed campaign and congressional strategy for 65 minutes here Monday night with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP nominee for the White House, and his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge.

At a news conference after the meeting Nixon made it clear the President plans an active role in the campaign.

Referring to Eisenhower as "the champ," Nixon said the President had given him some good campaign tips, but declined to elaborate, saying he was not going to be "helpful to our opponents."

Today, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty took the same tack. He said Eisenhower will disclose his plans at an appropriate time.

"I am sure," said Hagerty, "that the President will participate in the campaign. I am sure that some of his participation will be active—what I would call traditional political campaigning. But a great deal of it will not be."

Asked to explain that, Hagerty simply replied: "You'll find out."

Hundreds Killed U.N. Force To Keep Hands Off In Tribal Disorders In Congo

Dag Warns Belgians On 'False' Move

Tribesmen Warring With Bows, Arrows In Kasai Province

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The U. N. Command took a hands-off attitude today toward bloody tribal warfare reported in the Congo's Kasai province.

The UNC stressed that the Security Council had sent in the international force so Belgian soldiers could withdraw, and that tribal disturbances are an internal matter for the Congo government and its army, "not a mandate of the U. N. forces."

Belgian sources consider that the disorganized 25,000-man Congolese army, which mutinied against its white Belgian officers early in July, is totally incapable of controlling the warring tribesmen.

Belgian officials said the warfare — between the traditionally hostile Lulua and Baluba tribes in Kasai, east of Leopoldville — was the worst flareup in the history of the two tribes.

Unconfirmed reports said hundreds had been killed in the battling with bows and arrows, clubs and torches. Baluba tribesmen were reported in flight, some to adjoining Katanga province, which has proclaimed its independence of Premier Patrice Lumumba's central government.

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld warned Congolese leaders Monday night that any false move on their part could plunge the Congo into new turmoil.

He called on the infant government to follow the course set by the United Nations—"always free of all influence of groups, parties or ideology."

Area Railmen Await Strike

Wellsville, Conway Facilities May Be Hit

Pennsylvania Railroad employees at Wellsville and Conway are awaiting the next developments of a strike scheduled by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The brotherhood has authorized a strike of 5,000 operating employees against Pennsy in a dispute over work assignments at Pittsburgh.

The strike is set for 6 a. m. Thursday. If the strike is system-wide, from New York to St. Louis, as one union official reported it would be, Pennsy employees at Wellsville and Conway would be affected.

An official at Conway said today that while the strike is authorized only by firemen and engineers, technically it would involve every union employee at the yards—2,000 to 3,000—as they would honor picket lines.

But federal mediators may step in before the deadline to head off the walkout by certifying the case to the White House for appointment of an emergency fact-finding board.

Strike authorization was requested last week by W. B. Woodard and W. E. Turk, general chairman of the unit representing brotherhood members employed by the Pennsy. They asked for a strike order "to prevent management from discontinuing crew-board and crew dispatcher assignments at the 16th Street Terminal in Pittsburgh."

Although Pittsburgh is the only city directly involved, Woodard said the issue there is latest case involving the company's right to discontinue posted schedules and crew dispatchers, who he said are being assigned to other areas in

Council Enacts Bowling Alley Hours Change

Legislation Permits 2 Establishments To Be Open Until 2:30

An ordinance changing the closing time for the city's two bowling alleys from midnight to 2:30 a. m. on weekdays was approved unanimously Monday night by Council.

The amendment provides the alleys may not be operated between 2:30 and 7 a. m. Monday through Saturday, and from Saturday midnight until 2 p. m. on Sundays.

The change was sought several weeks ago by Dale Keddie of Orchard Grove Ave., operator of the Head Pin Bowling Alley, 504-06 Mulberry St., who argued some millworkers like to bowl after quitting time but the midnight closing makes it almost impossible.

He also pointed out a state liquor permit allows a bar which connects with the alleys to operate until 2:30 a. m.

Councilman Donald Hancock remarked Council had received a promise from Keddie to have the alleys sound-proofed to prevent the late bowling from becoming a nuisance to nearby residents.

If the alleys become a nuisance, the ordinance can be rescinded, he warned.

Council also approved a resolution authorizing payment of $17.70 to Eleanor Robertson, 149 Beechwood St., for the loss of items picked up for trash May 19 by the incinerator department.

Council also decided to remove two parking meters on the west side of Dresden Ave. just north of 6th St. so large through trucks will have room to pass traffic halted to make left turns at the intersection.

Councilman John Kelly said the streets committee investigated the problem and made the recommendation.

The committee still is considering removal of parking meters on the west side of Dresden Ave. between W. 8th and W. 9th Sts. and painting the curb yellow to ban parking, Kelly reported.

The streets committee also has authorized a new curb to relieve a water problem at the home of

Hunt Centers In Cuba For Security Pair

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The mystery of two missing employees of the top-secret U.S. National Security Agency centered in Cuba last night after a check showed they had registered at a hotel here but later left the country.

The Defense Department in Washington identified the men as William H. Morton and Bernon F. Mitchell, both employed at the Communications Intelligence Agency.

The mystery about the pair started after they failed to return from a vacation.

The U.S. embassy here said only "the matter was discussed today." The two men had not checked in with the embassy, as required for U.S. government employees.

A check of hotels showed the men had registered here but had departed. One source said they had gone to a "place they should not have visited." He was interpreted to mean Cuba.

The missing men, both mathematicians, left the security agency, which operates at Ft. Meade, Md., June 24, after telling friends they planned to drive together to the West Coast to visit relatives in Eureka, Calif., and Ellensburg, Wash. They never appeared at their announced destinations.

In Ellensburg, Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, said they had received no word from their son since he wrote that he and Mitchell planned to leave June 23 on a two-week auto trip.

Mitchell and Martin were due back on their jobs July 11 and 18, respectively, officials said.

Mitchell and Martin served in the Navy between 1951 and 1954 and joined the security agency in 1957.

The agency, so secret that its employees are not supposed to tell their friends where they work, is engaged in communications intelligence. It maintains around-the-clock monitoring of all signals and messages on the air waves, including those in code form.

$50,000 Loss In Fire

Auditor Starts Checking City Tax Petitions

Signatures Being Scanned For Validity In Tedious Process

City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate started a check Monday to determine the validity of 1,002 signatures on petitions seeking a vote at the Nov. 8 general election on a proposed municipal income tax.

State law provides the auditor must hold the petitions, filed Saturday by an independent citizens' committee, for 10 days for public inspection and also determine if there are sufficient signatures for a ballot place.

Applegate said about 2½ of the 20 petitions submitted by the committee were checked Monday in the slow process.

He pointed out signatures written in pencil must be rejected automatically, and those of unregistered voters also are disqualified.

However, the auditor said he will not reject any signatures where the voter met the requirements but made a mistake in filling in his precinct. He termed it a technicality.

With one clerk preparing the city payroll for Friday and another on vacation, the job of checking

Former District Man Held On Arson Charge

Robert Custer Leslie, 20, of Tuscarawas, formerly of East Liverpool, R. D. 2, was bound over to the September Grand Jury Monday by County Judge Luther Donbar on a charge of arson after he allegedly set fire to a barn on the Harry Speidel farm, east of Hanoverton, Friday evening.

Loss in the blaze was estimated at between $12,000 and $14,000.

Leslie was arrested at the fire by Deputy James Gause and allegedly admitted setting fire to the barn. He was en route to his former home near Grimms Bridge from Tuscarawas and had stopped for a drink of water he told deputies. He set the fire after finding no one at the farm, authorities said.

Nixon Against 'Big Spending' By Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon heads westward today on his first presidential campaign swing after aligning himself against any big spending measures Democrats might pass to win votes.

Nixon said President Eisenhower plans to veto any massive spending bills the Democratic-controlled Congress might vote for "purely political" reasons after it reconvenes next week. He said he agrees with Eisenhower on this.

Nixon and his wife scheduled an early takeoff for a five-day trip that will include a visit to Nixon's hometown of Whittier, Calif., a traditional campaign stop and a two-day tour of Hawaii, the nation's newest state.

But the first stop will be to honor Mrs. Nixon. Her native state has planned a "Pat Nixon Day" at Reno, Nev.

Before heading for the campaign trails, Nixon visited Eisenhower late Monday at the summer White House at Newport, R.I.

The vice president announced Eisenhower had assured him he would veto any massive spending bills the Democratic-controlled Congress might pass for "purely political" reasons.

Nixon said the President would consider big spending measures as purely political unless they carried with them increased taxes to pay the bill.

He indicated that even if such measures included tax provisions, Eisenhower would veto them unless he regarded them as in the public interest.

U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, the GOP vice-presidential nominee, accompanied Nixon on the trip to Newport.

George Washington was only 44 years old when he assumed command of the Continental Army during the Revolution.

NEW KEY CLUB International president is Steven D. Copple, 17, a senior at Yuma (Ariz.) High School, who was elected at the annual convention of the youth service organization at Boston recently.

Amish Objector Faces New Jury Indictment

CLEVELAND (AP)—A federal grand jury Monday indicted Paul A. Miller, 23, an Amish conscientious objector, for the second time in less than 12 weeks on a charge of failure to comply with a draft board order to do work in maintenance of the national health and welfare.

FBI agents arrested Miller at his home in Wilmet, Holmes County, on July 22—a week after he quit his draft-assigned job as a laundry worker at University Hospitals here. Agents quoted him as saying he quit because he objected to working on Sunday.

Miller was indicted for the first time on May 12. He took the hospital job on June 1, and 10 days later U.S. District Judge Charles J. McNamee dismissed the indictment because Miller had taken the civilian job under the draft order. Edward E. Hargett, agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, said Miller had been told when he took the hospital job that he would have to work on Sunday.

Scientists Weigh Data In Short Rocket Flight

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—Scientists today are evaluating information obtained from the short-lived flight of a Strongarm rocket launched late Monday night.

The rocket, failing to function properly in its fifth stage, soared to about 300 miles before dropping into the Atlantic Ocean.

A spokesman at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., said the test was aimed at measuring upper atmosphere electron densities at altitudes above 200 miles. He said the rocket was tracked for 32 seconds and some data was collected.

The average American consumes about 70 pounds of canned foods in a year.

Vote For Dobbs And 'Feel Clean' Woman Declares

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Myra Tanner Weiss of New York, vice presidential candidate of the Socialist Workers Party, said here Monday night that a vote for her and for Farrell Dobbs, who heads the ticket, will leave a person "feeling clean" when he emerges from the voting booth.

Mrs. Weiss, who also was her party's vice presidential candidate in 1952 and 1956, spoke at the Unitarian Society of Cleveland on a panel discussing "Which Way for Peace?"

"Republican and Democratic freedom," said Mrs. Weiss, "is freedom for millionaires to make profits — millionaires on both sides."

American people who are "really concerned with peace, the people as a whole, must look elsewhere for a debate on the U.S. foreign policy," she said. "Isn't it better to vote for what you want and won't get than to vote for what you don't want and will get?" she asked.

Huge Development Set For Sites Near Lorain

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Plans for a 47-million-dollar residential community and industrial park for Avon in Lorain County were outlined Monday night before the Avon Planning Commission.

The development is said to be the largest of its kind ever planned in Ohio. It calls for construction of a 17-million-dollar residential community containing more than 1,000 homes, a school and recreation area and a 30-million-dollar industrial park with between 35 and 40 light industrial plants.

The owner is the Brusino Development Co., headed by Alex Brusino, veteran Cleveland builder and developer.

Site of the residential community is two miles south of Detroit Road and two miles west of the Cuyahoga County line. The industrial park will occupy 280 acres located about three miles north of the home community site.

FBI Not In On Search For 2 Security Aides

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI says it is not checking on the whereabouts of two U.S. National Security Agency employees who left for a vacation in the West and apparently went to Mexico instead.

Bernon F. Mitchell, 31, and William H. Martin, 29, began their vacations on June 24 and were due back in mid-July. They have not contacted their families nor the agency since they left.

Authorities said the men, both single, booked plane passage to Mexico City on June 25. A check of Mexico City hotels Monday showed they had registered there but later had left.

The two worked as junior mathematicians at the Ft. Meade, Md., Communications Intelligence Agency.

Nixon Against 'Big Spending' By Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon heads westward today on his first presidential campaign swing after aligning himself against any big spending measures Democrats might pass to win votes.

Nixon said President Eisenhower plans to veto any massive spending bills the Democratic-controlled Congress might vote for "purely political" reasons after it reconvenes next week. He said he agrees with Eisenhower on this.

Nixon and his wife scheduled an early takeoff for a five-day trip that will include a visit to night to Nixon's hometown of Whittier, Calif., a traditional campaign stop and a two-day tour of Hawaii, the nation's newest state.

But the first stop will be to honor Mrs. Nixon. Her native state has planned a "Pat Nixon Day" at Reno, Nev.

Before heading for the campaign trails, Nixon visited Eisenhower late Monday at the summer White House at Newport, R.I.

The vice president announced Eisenhower had assured him he would veto any massive spending bills the Democratic-controlled Congress might pass for "purely political" reasons.

Nixon said the President would consider big spending measures as purely political unless they carried with them increased taxes to pay the bill.

He indicated that even if such measures included tax provisions, Eisenhower would veto them unless he regarded them as in the public interest.

U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, the GOP vice-presidential nominee, accompanied Nixon on the trip to Newport.

George Washington was only 44 years old when he assumed command of the Continental Army during the Revolution.

NEW KEY CLUB International president is Steven D. Copple, 17, a senior at Yuma (Ariz.) High School, who was elected at the annual convention of the youth service organization at Boston recently.

Amish Objector Faces New Jury Indictment

CLEVELAND (AP)—A federal grand jury Monday indicted Paul A. Miller, 23, an Amish conscientious objector, for the second time in less than 12 weeks on a charge of failure to comply with a draft board order to do work in maintenance of the national health and welfare.

FBI agents arrested Miller at his home in Wilmot, Holmes County, on July 22—a week after he quit his draft-assigned job as a laundry worker at University Hospitals here. Agents quoted him as saying he quit because he objected to working on Sunday.

Miller was indicted for the first time on May 12. He took the hospital job on June 1, and 10 days later U.S. District Judge Charles J. McNamee dismissed the indictment because Miller had taken the civilian job under the draft order.

Edward E. Hargett, agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, said Miller had been told when he took the hospital job that he would have to work on Sunday.

Scientists Weigh Data In Short Rocket Flight

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—Scientists today are evaluating information obtained from the short-lived flight of a Strongarm rocket launched late Monday night.

The rocket, failing to function properly in its fifth stage, soared to about 300 miles before dropping into the Atlantic Ocean.

A spokesman at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., said the test was aimed at measuring upper atmosphere electron densities at altitudes above 200 miles. He said the rocket was tracked for 32 seconds and some data was collected.

The average American consumes about 70 pounds of canned foods in a year.

Vote For Dobbs And 'Feel Clean' Woman Declares

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Myra Tanner Weiss of New York, vice presidential candidate of the Socialist Workers Party, said here Monday night that a vote for her and for Farrell Dobbs, who heads the ticket, will leave a person "feeling clean" when he emerges from the voting booth.

Mrs. Weiss, who also was her party's vice presidential candidate in 1952 and 1956, spoke at the Unitarian Society of Cleveland on a panel discussing "Which Way for Peace?"

"Republican and Democratic freedom," said Mrs. Weiss, "is freedom for millionaires to make profits — millionaires on both sides."

American people who are "really concerned with peace, the people as a whole, must look elsewhere for a debate on the U.S. foreign policy," she said. "Isn't it better to vote for what you want and won't get than to vote for what you don't want and will get?" she asked.

Huge Development Set For Sites Near Lorain

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Plans for a 47-million-dollar residential community and industrial park for Avon in Lorain County were outlined Monday night before the Avon Planning Commission.

The development is said to be the largest of its kind ever planned in Ohio. It calls for construction of a 17-million-dollar residential community containing more than 1,000 homes, a school and recreation area and a 30-million-dollar industrial park with between 35 and 40 light industrial plants.

The owner is the Brusino Development Co., headed by Alex Brusino, veteran Cleveland builder and developer.

Site of the residential community is two miles south of Detroit Road and two miles west of the Cuyahoga County line. The industrial park will occupy 280 acres located about three miles north of the home community site.

FBI Not In On Search For 2 Security Aides

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI says it is not checking on the whereabouts of two U.S. National Security Agency employees who left for a vacation in the West and apparently went to Mexico instead.

Bernon F. Mitchell, 31, and William H. Martin, 29, began their vacations on June 24 and were due back in mid-July. They have not contacted their families nor the agency since they left.

Authorities said the men, both single, booked plane passage to Mexico City on June 25. A check of Mexico City hotels Monday showed they had registered there but later left.

The two worked as junior mathematicians at the Ft. Meade, Md., Communications Intelligence Agency.

Auditor

ing the signatures is time-consuming, Applegate said.

With the possibility of each petition carrying names from all of the city's 32 precincts, the job of checking the signers against the polling lists provided by the County Election Board is very slow, the auditor explained.

To qualify for a ballot place, a minimum of 876 signatures is required, representing 10 per cent of the vote cast for governor in East Liverpool in the last general election of state officials.

If the petitions meet the legal requirements, the auditor will certify the question to the election board for a ballot place. The deadline for the certification is Aug. 10 at 4 p. m.

Patterned after two other ordinances that were repealed, the new initiative legislation would provide a tax of 80 cents on each $100 of earnings, business profits and other income.

The move for the new vote was launched July 21 by the independent citizens' group headed by Thomas Doland, Orchard Grove Ave. insurance agent.

Town Blows Off Steam At Festival

TELL CITY, Ind. (AP)—They blew off steam Monday night—plenty of steam.

The annual Schweizer Fest — Swiss Festival — arranged a "grand steam whistle" concert of 33 genuine steam whistles collected from everywhere.

Steam whistles, once common, now are a rarity. Tell City, founded by Swiss a century ago and named in honor of William Tell, the apple-arrow man, began collecting old whistles when they first began to go out of use. Some of the whistles in the collection are nearly four feet tall and eight inches in diameter.

Some have movable pistons which permit a rise and fall in the tone—like a scream—and are called "wildcats" because of the scream.

Each of the 33 whistles, plus those on local factories, sounded separately Monday night. As a finale, 10 whistles accompanied the wail of the biggest "wildcat" which is known locally as the "heul hund."

Quiet came today, but Saturday there will be a repeat tour, separately, for recordings for museums and collectors.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean a parchment lampshade?

A. You can do this job by rubbing the shade with a fresh piece of white bread, or an art-gum eraser, or with a cloth dipped in milk. In any case, be sure to brace the inside of the shade with one hand while you rub with the other — or you may find your rubbing hand too suddenly on the other side of the shade.

Q. When re-upholstering furniture, how can I prevent scratches and marks on the furniture from my tack hammer?

Q. How can I assure myself of the instant lighting of the candles on a birthday cake?

A. You can do this by applying a drop of fingernail polish to the tip of each candle wick.

Bowling Alley Bill Enacted

Mrs. R. N. McCullough of Bradshaw Ave., the councilman said.

At the request of Kelly, Council will confer in caucus at its next meeting with William A. Black, district manager of the Ohio Power Co., on the relocation of street lights which will be removed when the right-of-way for the new city expressway is cleared.

A request to open an extension of Logan St. to Francis St. was referred to the streets committee for investigation after Councilman Clinton Seavers reported he conferred with Fire Chief Charles Bryan and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver on the location of a new fire hydrant to provide better protection for families residing on the street where a home was destroyed by fire earlier this year.

In response to a question by Councilman Robert Laughlin on what steps had been taken to prevent a recurrence of a situation last week when a barge leaked and oil flowed into the Ohio River along the River Rd., Seavers said he believes the companies should take extra precautions. He said East Liverpool along with other cities has spent considerable money in an attempt to clean up the river.

A claim from Robert E. Houchin of Weirton for $40.73 for damage to a tire was referred to the claims committee for investigation.

Eugene Coleman of Valley View St. asked Council to widen the North Side street. It was referred to the director and streets committee for investigation.

The director said he has investigated the problem and is attempting to determine if the street has been dedicated to the city.

Renewing a long-standing complaint, M. F. Staats, 507 Virginia Ave., asked Council to have Dry Run flowing under his home and store cleaned and repaired.

William Conkle, 1835 Dakota Ave., asked Council when Carol Ln. will be closed, explaining the request was made several weeks ago. Council said the closing has been authorized and advised him to contact Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper on the effective date.

Council agreed to meet in caucus at 7 p. m. Aug. 15 to confer with George Bloomgren, city engineer, and Charles Huddleston, superintendent of the municipal sewage disposal plant, on the "imperative need" of improvements at the Pleasant Heights lift station.

It conferred briefly with a representative of the Staley Communications Co. of Cadiz on suggested specifications to be used in advertising for a two-way police radio system and any extra units Council may want for the fire department.

Council also agreed informally to instruct Bloomgren to proceed with plans for a garage to house city equipment on a city-owned lot on E. 2nd St.

Council also conferred with Stewart Thompson of Park Way, who said he learned recently Thompson Pl., a short dead-end street extending east from E. 3rd

St. and the Chester Bridge, never has been dedicated to the city. Thompson said he is willing to deed the street but it first must be accepted by the city. Council indicated it will ask the solicitor to prepare the necessary legislation, but took no formal action. Some 8 or 10 homes are located on the narrow street, Thompson said.

Because its regular meeting falls on Labor Day, Council approved a motion setting its first meeting in September for the Tuesday following the holiday.

Copenhaver notified Council it has been invited to attend a Civil Defense meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in Lisbon.

Councilman Donald Smith was excused. Council President Charles N. Edwards opened the meeting with the invocation.

Auditor

ing the signatures is time-consuming, Applegate said.

With the possibility of each petition carrying names from all of the city's 32 precincts, the job of checking the signers against the polling lists provided by the County Election Board is very slow, the auditor explained.

To qualify for a ballot place, a minimum of 876 signatures is required, representing 10 per cent of the vote cast for governor in East Liverpool in the last general election of state officials.

If the petitions meet the legal requirements, the auditor will certify the question to the election board for a ballot place. The deadline for the certification is Aug. 10 at 4 p. m.

Pattered after two other ordinances that were repealed, the new initiative legislation would provide a tax of 80 cents on each $100 of earnings, business profits and other income.

The move for the new vote was launched July 21 by the independent citizens' group headed by Thomas Doland, Orchard Grove Ave. insurance agent.

Town Blows Off Steam At Festival

TELL CITY, Ind. (AP)—They blew off steam Monday night—plenty of steam.

The annual Schweizer Fest—Swiss Festival—arranged a "grand steam whistle" concert of 33 genuine steam whistles collected from everywhere.

Steam whistles, once common, now are a rarity. Tell City, founded by Swiss a century ago and named in honor of William Tell, the apple-arrow man, began collecting old whistles when they first began to go out of use. Some of the whistles in the collection are nearly four feet tall and eight inches in diameter.

Some have movable pistons which permit a rise and fall in the tone—like a scream—and are called "wildcats" because of the scream.

Each of the 33 whistles, plus those on local factories, sounded separately Monday night. As a finale, 10 whistles accompanied the wail of the biggest "wildcat" which is known locally as the "heul hund."

Quiet came today, but Saturday there will be a repeat too, separately, for recordings for museums and collectors.

Rain Dance Rained Out During Camp Program

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—Children of the Tall Timbers Day Camp practiced their Indian rain dance under clear skies.

Baked Pear Dish Features Blend Of Flavors

Do you ever come across a recipe that just by its name alone sounds intriguing? We've hit upon—Tropical Baked Pears. But, once you have sampled this dessert the intrigue is no longer a mystery. It's the delicious blend of flavors of canned pear halves, orange slices, chopped dates and nuts baked in a fruit juice-tapioca sauce.

The time to serve it is no mystery either. It's good for all occasions. Serve it for a dessert-coffee treat when your club meets at your home. Or, you can't go wrong serving it as the final touch when you're entertaining at an elegant company meal.

Tropical Baked Pears

1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) pear halves
1 orange
2 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped dates
¼ cup chopped nuts

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Drain 1 cup syrup from pears into a baking dish. Add the juice from ½ of the orange, tapioca and salt; mix. Put drained pears, cut side up, and the remaining ½ orange cut into thin slices in the baking dish. Sprinkle with dates and nuts and dot with butter. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 30 minutes, until sauce is thickened. Serve warm or cold.

John Titch of Lisbon, another guest, gave a talk on "England In Prehistoric Times."

40 Students Register At Midland High School

Some 40 of an expected 200 registered Monday, the first of three days for registration of new students at Midland Lincoln High School, Principal William A. Walters said.

Registrations continue today and Wednesday from 9 a. m. until noon and 1 to 4 p. m. at the principal's office, for new students in the district and Presentation parochial and Western Beaver County district graduates.

Last year's Lincoln students and those entering from 4th St. School do not need to register, Walters said.

He asked that those registering should bring a vaccination certificate and their birth or baptismal certificate.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean a parchment lampshade?

A. You can do this job by rubbing the shade with a fresh piece of white bread, or an art-gum eraser, or with a cloth dipped in milk. In any case, be sure to brace the inside of the shade with one hand while you rub with the other—or you may find your rubbing hand too suddenly on the other side of the shade.

Q. When re-upholstering furniture, how can I prevent scratches and mars on the furniture from my tack hammer?

A. A strip of adhesive tape wrapped over the head of your hammer will go a long way towards preventing this.

Q. How can I assure myself of the instant lighting of the candles on a birthday cake?

A. You can do this by applying a drop of fingernail polish to the tip of each candle wick.

Bowling Alley Bill Enacted

Mrs. R. N. McCullough of Bradshaw Ave., the councilman said.

At the request of Kelly, Council will confer in caucus at its next meeting with William A. Black, district manager of the Ohio Power Co., on the relocation of street lights which will be removed when the right-of-way for the new city expressway is cleared.

A request to open an extension of Logan St. to Francis St. was referred to the streets committee for investigation after Councilman Clinton Seever reported he conferred with Fire Chief Charles Bryan and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver on the location of a new fire hydrant to provide better protection for families residing on the street where a home was destroyed by fire earlier this year.

In response to a question by Councilman Robert Laughlin on what steps had been taken to prevent a recurrence of a situation last week when a barge leaked and oil flowed into the Ohio River along the River Rd., Seever said he believes the companies should take extra precautions. He said East Liverpool along with other cities has spent considerable money in an attempt to clean up the river.

A claim from Robert E. Houchin of Weirton for $40.73 for damage to a tire was referred to the claims committee for investigation.

Eugene Coleman of Valley View St. asked Council to widen the North Side street. It was referred to the director and streets committee for investigation.

The director said he has investigated the problem and is attempting to determine if the street has been dedicated to the city.

Renewing a long-standing complaint, M. F. Staats, 507 Virginia Ave., asked Council to have Dry Run flowing under his home and store cleaned and repaired.

William Conkle, 1835 Dakota Ave., asked Council when Carol Ln. will be closed, explaining the request was made several weeks ago. Council said the closing has been authorized and advised him to contact Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper on the effective date.

Council agreed to meet in caucus at 7 p. m. Aug. 15 to confer with George Bloomgren, city engineer, and Charles Huddleston, superintendent of the municipal sewage disposal plant, on the "imperative need" of improvements at the Pleasant Heights lift station.

It conferred briefly with a representative of the Staley Communications Co. of Cadiz on suggested specifications to be used in advertising for a two-way police radio system and any extra units Council may want for the fire department.

Council also agreed informally to instruct Bloomgren to proceed with plans for a garage to house city equipment on a city-owned lot on E. 2nd St.

Council also conferred with Stewart Thompson of Park Way, who said he learned recently Thompson Pl., a short dead-end street extending east from E. 3rd

Because its regular meeting falls on Labor Day, Council approved a motion setting its first meeting in September for the Tuesday following the holiday.

Copenhaver notified Council it has been invited to attend a Civil Defense meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in Lisbon.

Councilman Donald Smith was excused. Council President Charles N. Edwards opened the meeting with the invocation.

Russia's Veto Of A Free Vote

The Kremlin was bound to answer President Eisenhower's challenge, contained in his speech to the Republican National Convention last week, to allow all the people of the world to vote on whether they want to live under communism or democracy.

But the answer the Reds came up with, in view of their talent for dialectics, was unusually absurd. For more than 40 years, said a commentator in Pravda, people have been voting on that question and more than a billion of them have ranged themselves on the side of communism.

The Communist writer missed—or deliberately ignored—the key word in the President's challenge. It was "free." There is a vast difference between a Communist vote and a free vote.

RED REGIMES hold elections regularly, but there are no issues to be discussed and the candidates are carefully selected so the Communists cannot lose. That is not the kind of election President Eisenhower had in mind. An example of the Reds' allergy to free votes can be found in efforts to reunite Germany. There is a long-standing Western offer to hold a plebiscite among Germans to determine what sort of regime under which they would want to be reunited. The only hitch in the offer is that the West insists it be a free election, supervised perhaps by the United Nations.

So the offer has never been accepted by the Communists. Indeed, they have steadily worked toward formalizing the East German "republic" to move further from the possibility of a reunification vote, because they know Germans in the Russian-controlled sector of the country would vote overwhelmingly for the kind of government that has made West Germany a world power again.

FROM ANOTHER ANGLE, the United Nations debate last week on the RB47 flight illustrates the Kremlin's distaste for proceedings which are not rigged in advance. When Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge countered the Russian charge that the United States had violated Soviet borders with a proposal that an impartial study group be set up to determine what actually happened, the Soviet vetoed it.

Mr. Lodge made his proposal in the knowledge that the Red charge was false and that the Reds knew it was false.

President Eisenhower's proposed free vote among all the people of the world will never come to pass because the Soviet Union has the power to veto it among those nations of whose destinies it has taken control.

That in itself puts the lie to the absurd argument advanced by Pravda's commentator.

What Is Ahead For Cuba?

There are increasingly frequent reports these days that many Cubans are beginning to see through the smoke screen fanned by Fidel Castro's marathon tirades against the United States. Along with the reports come increasingly frequent predictions, some by highly reliable sources, that the Castro regime will not last out the year.

Let this set Americans to rejoicing over the imminent collapse of a foreign conspiracy threatening the solidarity of the Western Hemisphere, it is wise to consider whether the disappearance of Castro from the Cuban scene would guarantee a reversal of the Communist trend there.

"DIVIDE AND CONQUER" is a strategy as old as history itself. It has been used as a matter of course by totalitarianists, including the Communist variety. And evidence aplenty that this is what has been going on in Cuba is presented in an article written by a correspondent who returned recently from four months in the Castro corner.

He emphasizes that the vast majority of Cubans supported and still support the basic goals of the original Castro revolution. Only an insignificant few want to return to anything resembling the era of Batista. But, the writer adds, this solidarity of purpose has been seriously hampered by the negative aspect of the Castro technique. The article includes this significant paragraph:

"Families, marriages and friendships have been split. There are revolutionary sons and counter-revolutionary fathers—in deed and spirit. There are 'Fidelista' wives and 'anti-Fidelista' husbands. There are lifelong friends who no longer speak to each other because the revolution has come between them. There is fear, suspicion and distrust, and in what these are doing to Cubans — a nation of charming and good-natured people — lies one of the great tragedies of the revolution."

WHAT THIS MEANS is that the way may have been paved — through a division of Cubans on the methods — for ambitious power-seekers to call for a renewed rally around the revolution's ends, which most Cubans support.

This does not mean Cubans will necessarily get the ends they desire. They might find themselves rid not only of Fidel Castro but also of any real possibility of achieving true democracy.

Appeal To A Thief

Another candidate for "the meanest thief" title could become a good fellow instead if he only would return the money which belongs to "Debbie".

When the culprit left the Moose Lodge early Sunday after breaking into a safe, $134 in contributions for "Debbie" raised by the lodge was among the loot.

In case the thief isn't aware—and should read this appeal by some strange coincident—"Debbie" is the little girl who has been undergoing treatment for a rare ailment which has resulted in a medical bill too staggering for the average family to handle without help. Therefore, under sponsorship of the Lions Club, a communitywide drive was launched to help defray the expense.

If the appeal registers, the money taken from the lodge could be returned by mailing it in care of the "Debbie Fund, First National Bank, East Liverpool". The thief was clever enough to outsmart the safe, therefore, should be smart enough to figure out a way to return the money without offering a clue as to his whereabouts.

A lot of people—including "Debbie"—would be the happier.

By H. I. Phillips

The Once Over

Of all the speeches at both conventions, 66-year-old Herbert Hoover's address calling America's greatest need the restoration of moral values, lingers on in the public mind.

Here was a clear warning that the "atomic character" rates over the atomic bomb, that rockets carrying warheads are no greater danger than sleazy codes of life carrying corrupt viewpoints, and that shots to backside of moon are less important than wallops to the backsides of chiselers, finaglers, slickers, grafters and a public yawning as it witnesses the sordid American scene from luxury autos.

WITH OTHER SPEAKERS shouting about foreign policy, economic growth, etc., only ex-President Hoover tabbed the nation's basic need as being a return to old-fashioned American aversion to shabby standards and contempt for law and order. His points, while not stated this way, were that America needs above all else:

1. Inherent respect for honesty and a return to the American ideals that built the nation.

2. A realization that Polaris sub, which fires a rocket from underwater, is no more important than Polaris man who can fire weapon of high character against moral decline.

3. A Cape Canaveral of national spirit that can get American character "off the pad," with no failures.

4. An arsenal of home, school and church that can bring back widespread and deep indignation over finagling, cheating, corrupt "operators" and general lawlessness.

5. A realization that all weapons for national defense are "also rans" compared to traditional weapons of the American fireside, school and templed halls of yesterday.

These are the two dozen words of Herbert Hoover that stand out against the tens of thousands delivered at conventions: "The moral forces embedded in the soul of America are more important than all other issues, for they lay at the BASE OF THEIR SOLUTION." (Paste them in your hat, Mr. and Mrs. America.)

A TEAM OF HYPNOTISTS demonstrated to doctors in a Waldorf-Astoria meeting the use of hypnotism on patients. ("In there a Svengali in the house?") Mesmerism can make operations painless, it is claimed. But the average man facing the knife or dentist's drill will exclaim, "All this and hypnotism, too!" In the Waldorf test the hypnotists put subjects to sleep. But the session adjourned with no answer to the question, "Suppose the patient has hypnotic powers and puts doctor to sleep?"

Castro was so weak from illness that at last appearance he had to cut his attacks on America from 3 hours to 2 hours and 50 minutes. . . . Britain has promoted the Earl of Home to high post. What ever became of Duke of Nitelife, Prince of Outlate and the Duke of Seldomin? . . . Robbers stuck up a big milk plant and stole $30,000. Probably used the command "Hand over the dough or we'll cream you." (Maybe the bandits were family men out to get even for milk bills.)

Doctors in New York Convention denounce state laws holding that more than a .15 percentage of alcohol in blood is necessary to prove auto driver dangerous. They say far a lesser content can render driver's menace to safety. Maybe so, but the present trouble is that so many perfectly sober drivers are operating cars as if stinko.

Emphasis on the bust is completely discarded in latest Paris women's style show. Good idea! The human bust has been promoted to the extreme limits, in fact you would assume busts were a new discovery in need of advertising. . . . the GOP convention was only one in years that you could sleep through, present or not.

Odd Facts

Most food historians give the nod to Marco Polo, the famous Italian explorer, for having brought ice cream to the civilized world. He was supposed to have eaten the delicacy in China some 600 years ago and to have brought recipes for water and milk ices back with him to Europe.

According to statistics, young automobile drivers have almost twice as many accidents as equal numbers of older drivers. Motor vehicle accidents are a leading cause of death among young people between the ages of 15 and 24.

Crime War Requires Aroused Citizenry

By Victor Riesel

To know where the crime combine's executive suites are is not difficult. To know who its tycoons are is not difficult. But to gather the evidence for presentation in a court of law to smash syndicate crime under our laws is frequently impossible. But the impossible is being done daily by the Justice Dept. Victor Riesel asked Attorney General William Rogers for an analysis of his department's battle against the crime carte. This is his reply.

By WILLIAM P. ROGERS

The invitation to supply a column for Victor Riesel while he is abroad gives me an opportunity to write about syndicated crime and racketeering in the United States.

This is a subject that should be of serious concern to every citizen and Mr. Riesel has made a contribution to public knowledge of its gravity by writing so frequently in his columns about the nefarious activities of hoodlums, gamblers, crooked labor leaders, narcotics peddlers and other criminals who prey upon law-abiding people.

Ever since I became attorney general, the drive against organized crime and racketeering has been a major activity of the Department of Justice. It is a campaign that cannot be won by skirmishes; only a sustained and relentless warfare, solidly supported by the public, can ever wipe out the menace of syndicated crime. In the Justice Department we are waging that kind of a battle and we believe that we have made progress.

MORE THAN TWO YEARS AGO

I assigned a special group of attorneys to study the over-all activities of organized crime to see what federal laws were being violated. This group worked effectively with federal and local law enforcement agencies and assembled and evaluated a vast store of information which enabled us to trace the pattern of syndicated crime in this country.

A tangible result of the work of this task force was the prosecution and conviction in December 1959 of 20 of those who attended a secret meeting at Apalachin, N.Y., in November 1957.

Some of those who attended that meeting have also been convicted of violations of other federal laws. Vito Genovese and Natale Evola, with 13 others, were found guilty in April 1959 of conspiracy to violate the narcotics laws. Genovese received a 15-year sentence and Evola 10 years. The operations of that ring involved large-scale smuggling of heroin from Europe to New York by way of Mexico and Cuba.

Another important conviction in the narcotics enforcement field was that of Harry Stromberg, alias Nig Rosen, and 18 of his associates in 1958. Rosen was found to be the financial backer and director of a heroin smuggling ring which operated from 1951 to 1955. In one 18-month period the ring imported to New York from France 50 pounds of heroin each month and some of the individual shipments had a market value of five million dollars.

IN THE FIELD of labor racketeering, 50 individuals have been indicted and 24 convictions obtained under the federal extortion and bribery statutes. Some of those recently convicted were:

Robert "Barney" Baker, Central Conference of Teamsters representative and confidant of James R. Hoffa, found guilty at Pittsburgh in April on bribery and other charges.

William Presser, president of the Ohio Conference of Teamsters, convicted in Cleveland June 7 of destroying records subpoenaed by the McClellan Committee and sentenced to eight months in prison.

Angelo Inciso, racketeering labor leader, convicted in Chicago on June 23 of bribery, sentenced to 10 years and fined $22,000.

Several other leaders in syndicated crime and racketeering are under indictment and awaiting trial. Investigations are in progress which we are confident will bring many other enemies of the law before courts of justice and further curtail their criminal activities.

To an extent unrealized by the uninitiated, the career experts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other federal law enforcement agencies have perfected a system of exchange of information which rapidly places data on criminal activities in the hands of the agency having appropriate investigative jurisdiction.

THE SAME IS TRUE of Federal-state cooperation between law enforcement authorities. The FBI central fingerprint files, laboratory techniques and other research facilities are immediately available to all other Federal and state law enforcement agencies.

Space does not permit any detailing of the excellent work done by the Narcotics Bureau, the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, and the Immigration and Naturalization Service in developing an increasing number of prosecutable cases against racketeers during the past two years.

Enforcement of the federal narcotics laws has been so vigorous and effective that there are indications that syndicate leaders are abandoning this lucrative field because the risk is no longer commensurate with the profit. The major violators' program of the alcohol and tobacco tax people has produced successful prosecutions of numerous big bootleg operators in key metropolitan areas.

I feel that a good job is being done in curtailing this evil. I think that law enforcement is generally working well and cohesively in meeting the problem. Every racketeer operation has two common denominators: It must be profitable and it must be safe.

An aroused citizenry refusing to deal or knuckle under to these hoodlums will take away the profit motive. Constant unremitting pressure from law enforcement will eliminate the safety feature. Between us we can get the job done.

Politics Can Be Fun

By Truman Twill

At no cost to readers, herewith is the secret of how to be happy though surrounded by people who will be wanting to argue about politics until Nov. 8.

The secret is based on a tested recipe. It is called passive cooperation—the opposite of passive resistance.

In passive resistance, you refuse to go along. You don't fight back, or shout, or threaten to call your big brother. You just sit down and refuse to go along.

But in passive cooperation, you go along without any real conviction. It is like the "mousetrap" play in football, when a ferocious lineman charges full speed ahead, encounters no resistance and suddenly finds himself in the wrong place at the wrong time with no chance to do anything about it.

Or if you don't know why that can be disconcerting. It is like charging into a locked door and having it suddenly swing open. You land on your face, a victim of your own disdirected energy.

How does this apply to politics? If you refuse to argue about politics and go along, you take advantage of the misdirected energy of all the knuckleheads who try to butt you into submission.

Do not resist them. Do not argue with them. Do not let them make you sputter. Never raise your voice. Never let them get the needle into you. Smile and be agreeable.

Encourage them to speak. Ask them to tell you more. Give them the come-on and the soft soap. Throw in a leading question from time to time. Draw them out. Draw them in.

Not one person in a thousand is prepared to cope with this. It is not what they expect. They want to lock horns. They are ready for a free-for-all.

In its absence, they have nothing to say. They are ready to vent their spleen, but they have no excuse to get rid of it. They have been caught off guard and felled with a kiss.

The tough thing about it is to remember that the end will justify the means, provided there is enough patience. It does take patience. It may seem forever before the assailant falls forward on his own face and lies there gasping, out of steam and stewing in his own juice.

At this point, a coup de grace can be delivered suggesting that he get up and repeat the performance.

It is possible to reduce a man-eating tiger of the political species to despair by doing this—to make the beasts of the political jungle avoid you as they avoid the bull elephant.

What they are looking for is a fight they can win.

They are unprepared if they encounter no resistance.

It is out of the question for them to have fun without a fight. If that suits your purposes—if you would rather have fun than fight cut off their fighting and watch them fume. It never fails.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Wells-ville Council voted to employ a mechanical engineer for a survey of the pumping station, with a view of motorizing the plant as a solution to the water problem.

The crop loss in Hancock County was estimated at $25,000 in the dry spell that swept the district.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Myra E. Kyes of East Palestine was re-appointed for a second two-year term as chairman of the Columbiana County Republican Women's organization.

The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the First Presbyterian Church served as chaplain at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, for a two-week period.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Hancock County School Board accepted the resignation of James "Duke" O'Hara, as Chester High School football coach.

Mrs. Beulah Horton was installed as councilor of Pride of Valley Council 4, Daughters of America. William J. Bamer, office manager of the Webb Corp. for the last four years, was elevated to secretary-treasurer.

Of about 200 active volcanoes in the world, only 46 are in peaks of 10,000 feet or higher. In the Pacific Islands, eight are less than 1,000 feet high. Most famous is Anak Krakatau, remnant of Krakatau, whose explosion in 1883 was heard around the world.

Reflections On A Nation

By David Lawrence

Things Aren't As Bad As They're Pictured

Thoughts that come to one's mind after spending three weeks away from the national capital, thoughts of an America seen at first hand—how different it really appears from the image portrayed again and again by some of the "intellectuals" in our midst! It does anyone good to come down to earth—to visit the grass roots and talk with the citizens themselves.

After months of reading essays and listening to speeches about how America is in a state of "moral decay," of how our "affluent" society is causing us to deteriorate and how we are losing that indefinable something called "prestige" in the world, it was inspiring to see America as it really is.

For the men and women who are at work every day, faithfully giving their energies and their minds to the job at hand, don't show signs of lagging or faltering. Most of them are not driving around in power-steering autos. A vast number still have "used cars" that manage to get them to and from work and provide a Sunday afternoon excursion to the country.

THE PHYSICAL appearance of America isn't bad either. There are lots of undeveloped areas, lots of places where new buildings and homes would be desirable. But our eyes must not overlook the vast improvement in living standards and the better homes, with well-kept lawns, the better streets and the better roads that have made America a land unsurpassed in this world.

Luxuries are coming along fast enough, and human beings will never cease to crave more comforts—not stimulus of government is necessary to encourage such desires or aspirations.

The lofty debate about America's "standing in the world" is too vague for the average man to understand. He is far more concerned about what is happening right here at home. For population is growing. Episodes of friction between races are naturally increasing in number because there are more people everywhere.

True enough, there is more crime and more juvenile delinquency—an increasing population can account for much of this—and there can be no doubt that broken marriages and disrupted home life have contributed much toward bringing mental disturbances among young and old.

But despite the healthy discussion of our faults, it is important to maintain a sense of proportion—to have a perspective that looks at all and not just some of the facts.

FOR THE FACTS are that America is a vibrant country. Its people are not degenerating because of increased comforts. Their moral position is not to be disparaged because a small fraction manage to steal in the stores or the banks or to allow "payola" to influence their careers.

The fact is that more men and women and children go to church today than ever in our history. They may not always practice what they hear preached, but their attendance in a place of worship indicates their yearning for the spiritual help that God can give them.

The life of the American is not an unhappy one in a general sense. Individual happiness, of course, is a matter of individual adjustment to the problems that press upon one from every side.

On my 6,000-mile train trip I talked with many people who didn't know I was a newspaperman. They talked freely of their work, of their hopes and ambitions, and of their country.

I remember, for example, especially a conversation with a young policeman who was working as a chauffeur during his vacation time so as to earn a little more money for his wife and two young children.

I asked him about the hazards of his job, for he patrolled the dangerous section of a big city. I asked him about his pay.

He has about $100 a week left after the usual deduction for taxes and insurance. I asked him how he got along on that amount.

"Well," he replied, "my wife and I are very careful. We budget every nickel. We have to. But we get along all right."

I asked about his previous work. He had served 10 years in the Navy. I asked about his outlook on life in general. He was looking ahead hopefully. There was no sign of discouragement—no feeling that his country is deteriorating.

IN THE OBSERVATION car of the train, I talked with a young lady of 23 who had majored in political science at Northwestern University. She had watched the proceedings of both conventions. She was intensely interested. She was on vacation from work in a business office. How did she like the speeches? Whom would she vote for? She replied:

"I thought Kennedy's speech of acceptance was marred by his personal attacks on Nixon. As for Nixon's speech, I wish he had prepared it in advance instead of speaking it off the cuff. The occasion demanded more dignity. I haven't made up my mind yet whom I shall vote for. It's to be my first vote for president. I want so much to do the right thing."

Youth is necessarily critical. It has higher ideals than the politicians realize. But, above all, fresh from a study of the history of the United States, it yearns for true statesmanship and a turn from hypocrisy to honesty.

Young and old will tell you in their own words that the true satisfaction in life come from honesty and integrity and a spirit of readiness to help one another. And, above all, there is a confidence in self-reliance, which, incidentally, is by no means a vanishing ideal.

In these days of new "nationalism" in erstwhile colonial areas, it is a lesson in self-discipline that many observers, abroad as well as at home, need to re-emphasize. For it takes time and hard work to make a mature people and a mature country.

Budget For Defense

By Elton C. Fay

WASHINGTON One of the hottest issues in this campaign won't be settled by the voting.

Is the United States militarily able to counter an attack by the Soviet Union?

The balloting will indicate only to a certain extent the amount of confidence in the claims or complaints of one party or the other.

Nothing except a shooting war could prove either right.

The common goal of both parties is to deter a conflict in which neither the United States nor the Soviet Union could win but only apply a mutual and ghastly devastation. The hope is that if the United States has the ability to destroy the U.S.S.R., the Soviet logic should be against gambling on attack. There are unpredictable factors in this, including the degree of Soviet logic.

In general, the Democrats have been saying the Republican administration has been laggard in the race with Soviet military and related technological efforts, that the Reds are ahead. They say the Republicans have been stingy in providing defense funds.

This moves President Eisenhower to indignation. In his speech to his party's convention the former general contended that the Democratic administration of former President Truman was laggard, that the succeeding administration had to start the military build-up practically from scratch. He contended that "in the sum of our capabilities we have become the strongest military power on earth."

Broadly, this will become the theme of the new Republican standard bearer, Vice President Richard M. Nixon. But the shaping of the Republican platform disclosed attempts to accelerate spending.

All four top men of the two tickets should be able to speak from the experience of service veterans.

Nixon, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, have had naval service. U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Nixon's running mate, is a major general in the Army reserves.

The candidates and the country debate in the political forum the relative strengths of the United States and the U.S.S.R. and the amount of dollar and technical effort which is or should be applied against a disturbing backdrop of international developments.

From the Soviet Union has come strident warnings of rockets on the United States if American action in the Cuban situation should displease the Soviets. The U2 spy plane and the RB47 reconnaissance aircraft continue to be used in furious proclamations by the Soviets.

Tension mounts instead of diminishing.

The famed Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D. C., was established by statute in 1846, under the will of James Smithson, an Englishman who bequeathed his fortune to the United States to found an institution for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge among men."

The mammal with the longest life span is man, who in the U. S. has an average life expectancy of 69.3 years.

Black displayed copies of the house numbering assignment forms as part of the present program of providing numbers for homes on a grid basis. The forms were approved by the township trustees at a meeting last night.

The Great Issues

Nominees Differ On U.S. Economy

(Editor's Note — What's the proper growth rate for the U.S. economy? What about budget balancing the government spending? Taxes and inflation? Here lie the bread and butter issues of the coming campaign, and here's an analysis of the presidential candidates' approach to them. Another in a series of articles on principal issues.)

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Other issues may make blacker headlines as the presidential campaign advances, but the biggest gulf between the Democratic and Republican standard-bearers is on the issue of national economic policy.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts has moved steadily closer to the extreme liberal wing of the Democratic party in his career of nearly 14 years in Congress.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon is proud to call himself "conservative—conservative for progress." On five issues he has departed noticeably from the Eisenhower administration's line of fiscal produce and least possible interference with the free economy.

On one basic objective the two young candidates concur — more rapid national economic growth. They differ in the routes to be taken to the goal.

Kennedy invites the voters to rally behind the banner of easier money, federal outlays to stimulate income, consumption and employment, and higher taxes if need be to meet "national responsibilities" at home or overseas.

Nixon stands for "fiscal responsibility," stern use of the tight-money weapon against inflation; and higher taxes only if the cold war or other emergency need requires greater government spending.

But Nixon himself seems to have been pushed leftward by political pressures, through his concessions to the liberal platform demands of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, on the eve of the Republican National Convention.

However, Kennedy and Nixon still stand so far apart on so many issues that many voters are likely to think of them in terms of the loose labels, "liberal" and "conservative."

Here are some of the principal areas of conflict between the two:

GROWTH

Kennedy wants the growth target set at a 5 per cent increase in national production each year — and a national policy that the government will bend itself to achieving the goal. He concurs in the Democratic platform pledge to move swiftly against recessions by "public works or temporary tax cuts."

Nixon wants about the same growth rate, but would be content with 5 per cent annually as an average. He denounces the Kennedy approach as "growthmanship," leading to inflation and inviting economic collapse. He holds that "government intervention" is not the route to economic expansion.

TAXES

Both men prefer higher taxes to deficit spending if national needs compel a choice.

Kennedy holds that tax rises can be avoided by keeping the economy booming and producing more tax revenues. On specific tax issues the divergence is sharp. Nixon favors tax changes which would stimulate growth and business investment. He has endorsed more liberal depreciation laws, and called for reduction of higher-bracket income rates.

Kennedy has spoken out for the closing of "loopholes," the lowering of depletion allowances, repeal of the credit for dividend income, and tighter policing of expense accounts.

MONEY POLICY

Kennedy is opposed to tight money and high interest rates. He fought removal of the interest ceiling on government bonds, and was one of several senators who tried this year to get the Federal Reserve Board committed to a policy of easier credit.

Nixon denounces the idea of pegging interest rates "at artificially low levels. We say that this policy would in the long run wreck the economy, not expand it."

HOUSING

Kennedy has voted for public housing, liberalized mortgage credit, slum clearance and housing for the elderly. Nixon has spoken out on occasion against Democratic housing bills which, in his view, would have been costly and inflationary.

INFLATION

Both consider inflation a major — if not the foremost — domestic problem. Nixon favors orthodox methods of keeping prices down — restraint in federal spending, contraction of credit, use of persuasion to keep wage settlements reasonable.

Kennedy subscribes to the Democratic platform demand for restraints on "administered pricing" — the ability of some industries to maintain and increase prices regardless of demand. Nixon, as head of the anti-inflation committee, has rejected the theory that administered prices have been a major factor in the inflation of the postwar year.

Next: Civil rights.

3 Preliminary Selection Days Set For County 4-H Members

County Selection Day, where the winners from the three districts will compete to determine county winners and state fair participants, will also be held at the Fairfield School on Friday, Aug. 12, Miss Shank said.

4 Motorists Are Fined And 5th Forfeits

Registrations for the events will be held each day between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. with open house scheduled for 7:30 each evening, followed by a style show at 8:15.

West — Mrs. Arthur Ritchie, Mrs. Don Sanor and Mrs. Roger Stafford.

All parents and friends of 4-H members are invited to attend the evenings programs.

Republican Club Plans Forum On Registration

A forum on voter registration will be held at a meeting of the Beaver County Young Republican Club Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the Sahlis Farm at Beaver Falls.

The meeting previously was set for Beaver. Members will also discuss the Young Republican convention to be held Friday through Sunday at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel. Various resolutions and the role of delegates will be discussed.

Paul Spickerman of New Brighton, president, and John Reider of Midland are delegates. There will also be two alternates.

A Beaver County Republican committee meeting will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Harmony Room of the Broadhead Hotel in Beaver Falls. Sylvester Greco, chairman, will preside.

Lisbon Autoist Cited After Fairfield Crash

A Lisbon motorist was charged by the State Highway Patrol Monday afternoon after a collision with a Columbiana man's auto at the intersection of County Rd. 420 and Township Rd. 857 in Fairfield Township.

Irvin McGee, 59, of 117 E. Spruce St., Lisbon, was cited for failing to yield the right-of-way.

The patrol said McGee, headed west, turned south and was struck by a northbound auto driven by Harry L. Coppock, 26, of Columbiana.

McGee is to appear Wednesday before County Judge Earl Spalding in East Palestine.

Playgrounds Will Hold Hobby, Talent Shows

A hobby and talent show will highlight programs of area playgrounds in East Liverpool, Chester and Newell Wednesday night at 7. Merrill Hall, playground director, will be in charge.

Classified under the hobby show will be the most practical, unusual, valuable and the nicest. In the talent show, judging will be on the best actor or actress, dancer, singer and trick act or stunt.

Ribbons will be presented to the first, second and third place winners in each.

A picnic at Thompson Park is set for Aug. 10 at 10 a. m.

Light To Control Cars At East End Intersection

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet said today an order allowing westbound motorists to make a right turn from Pennsylvania Ave. onto Boyce St. on a red light has been rescinded.

All westbound traffic will be controlled by the traffic signal, the mayor said, explaining a traffic hazard might be created by allowing westbound traffic turning north onto Boyce St. to proceed through the red traffic signal.

Mayor Goodballet returned to his office in City Hall Monday after being stricken with chest pains Friday afternoon and taken home.

Fire Destroys 5 Acres Of Wheat Near Lisbon

LISBON — Fire destroyed approximately 5 acres of wheat on the Ben Andric farm Monday at 2:20 p. m. at the north edge of village limits off Route 45, according to Fire Chief Thirl Flugan.

Andric said he was making the second round with the combine in the seven-acre tract when a cigarette thrown away was blown back into the field, igniting the straw and standing wheat. Andric told firemen that he is not sure if his insurance covers grain in the field. The loss was not estimated.

4 Motorists Are Fined And 5th Forfeits

Four motorists were fined and a fifth forfeited a bond following traffic hearings Monday in Municipal Court.

Jack Haddock of the Riverview Hotel, Wellsville, was fined a total of $30 and costs on two charges after his arrest early Monday in Center Alley. He was assessed $25 and costs for improper registration and $5 and costs for crashing a traffic signal at 3rd and Market Sts.

Benjamin J. Corbisello, 307 Main St., Wellsville, and Edwin S. Bettis of Salineville, R. D. 1 were fined $25 and costs on speeding charges, with $10 of the fines suspended. They were cited on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. by the State Highway Patrol.

Ralph Clyde Kiger, 2116 Pennsylvania Ave., was fined $10 and costs for speeding early Saturday on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Ralph W. Snyder, 9 West Dr., Midland, also cited early Sunday for speeding on the "Hill Rd.," forfeited a $31 bond.

Ruth Haddock of Union St. was fined a total of $20 and costs on unpaid parking tickets. She was fined $5 and costs on a ticket issued April 30, 1959, for parking in a prohibited zone and $3 each on five other unpaid tickets. The charge was filed by Joan Starr, a city "meter maid."

2 Area Drivers Fined By Judge At Palestine

Two area motorists were fined Monday by County Judge Earl Spalding of East Palestine and third forfeited bond.

Carole Crawford of Rogers was fined $25 and costs for reckless driving while Russell J. Cunningham, 47, of Hammondville R. D. 1 was fined $10 and costs for crossing a yellow line.

Firm's Profits Rise

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Buckeye Steel Castings Co. has announced a boost in net earnings for the first half of 1960. The company Monday reported net earnings of $580,200 for the first six months compared with $509,500 for the first half of 1959.

Construction has begun in Steubenville on a new $150,000 district office for the strike-plagued Ohio Valley Gas Co.

The two-story brick and concrete structure will house the administration and accounting offices for the firm's Eastern Ohio district. The structure will be finished early next year.

A $160,000 office building for the firm's Bellaire division is now under construction in north Bellaire. Ohio Valley and maintenance workers still are awaiting the word from federal mediators to resume negotiations for a new contract in the 94-day-old strike of locals in East Liverpool, Steubenville and Bellaire.

Bargaining sessions ended June 17 and federal conciliators were to arrange for further negotiations. The 36 maintenance workers in East Liverpool on strike are members of Local 13656, District 50, United Mine Workers.

Newell Driver Injured In Mishap At Midland

A Newell motorist was treated at City Hospital Monday for minor injuries after his 1960 sedan was struck from the rear by a 1958 stake body truck about noon on Midland Ave., between 1st and 2nd Sts. at Midland.

Charles Blaine Mills, 27, of 531 Jefferson St., Newell, received injury to his left knee and elbow. Police said Mills stopped for a car pulling from a parking place when the truck driven by R. L. Campbell of New Brighton R. D. 1 hit the rear of his car.

Halpate And Ex-City Resident Have Narrow Escape In Lake

A Walnut St. man and a former East Liverpool barber have returned from a 10-day fishing trip in Canada with memories of a narrow brush with death on the high waves of West Lake near Picton, Ont.

Rudy Halpate, 52, of 414 Walnut St., secretary of Fraternal Order of Eagles Lodge 457, and Don Walker of Columbus, narrowly escaped drowning when a sudden gust of wind, accompanied by high waves, upset their 14-foot aluminum boat.

"I thought we were goners," Halpate said today before leaving to attend the national Eagles convention in Miami, Fla., as a delegate.

The aluminum boat, equipped with an outboard motor, was struck broadside by a gust of wind and high waves, dunking Halpate and Walker into 35-foot-deep water about 150 yards from a small island in the lake.

"We went under like a ton of bricks," Halpate related. "I got back to the boat, but it sank. I grabbed hold of a gas tank, but let it go when Walker threw me one of the cushions."

The cushions, the life-preserver type, were used by the pair in reaching the small island in the lake and eventually safety. Halpate said he was wearing a heavy Army jacket and heavy shoes and reached the island exhausted after battling the currents. There he passed out briefly.

"When I recovered, I saw Walker had not yet reached shore. He was all in, but clinging to the cushion. I pushed a log out as far as I could wade and managed to get him to shore," Halpate said.

A Toronto man later came to their aid and brought them to their cottage.

The near-drowning was Halpate's first accident on West Lake in 15 years of fishing.

The boat and outboard motor, owned by Walker, later were recovered from the lake by skin-divers.

Wiring in a car operated by Roy Monroe, 603 E. 3rd St., was damaged badly when a carburetor backfired Monday night at E. 5th and Walnut Sts.

EL Little Leaguers Roll To 4-1 Win Over Mingo Junction

Burkhart Hurls Locals To State Quarterfinals In 3-Hit Performance

Behind the three-hit pitching of Bob Burkhart the East Liverpool Americans find themselves battling in the state quarterfinals after eliminating Mingo Junction 4-1 Monday at Mingo.

Minor League Playoff Scheduled For Tonight

The two division winners in the Little League will clash for the 1960 championship tonight at 6 at Farrell Field on Campground Rd. north of Wells.

marks the farthest that any East Liverpool team has ever advanced in Little League tournament play.

After giving up one run in the first inning, Burkhart, who hurled for Golden Star during the regular Little League season, blanked the Mingo nine the remainder of the way.

His teammates took him to a three-run lead in the first inning, a margin he protected firmly. Burkhart fanned nine batters and walked three. One of the three hits he gave up was awarded by a protest board on an interference play.

Dave Gamble, East Liverpool's hard hitting second baseman, got his team off on the right foot by blasting a home run over the left field fence in the first inning.

Len Walker reached first on an error, then Burkhart singled and reached second when the center-fielder dropped the ball. Mike McVay got an infield single to fill the bases.

Larry Radcliffe walked to force in Walker then Burkhart scored on Mike Silliman's infield out.

East Liverpool's other tally came in the sixth inning when Silliman wound up on second after a dropped fly ball. Frank Tice went in to run for Silliman and scored easily when hard hitting Bucky Blythe blasted a double to deep center field for his second hit of the game.

Joe Kaslik, the losing hurler, drove in his team's only run with a double. Kaslik only gave up five hits and fanned 11 East Liverpool batters.

While Blythe collected two hits, Gamble, Burkhart and McVay accounted for the other safeties.

East Liverpool's Little Leaguers are one step away from the state semi-finals and two steps away from the state finals. The winner of Thursday's game would advance to the semi-finals to be played Aug. 8 at North Canton.

Monday's victory was the fourth in tournament play. East Liverpool has eliminated Scio, Massillon, and its sister East Liverpool National team.

Three Browns Are Injured

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Rich Kreitling, slot end from the University of Illinois, suffered a pulled groin muscle in the Cleveland Browns' practice session Monday afternoon and probably will be sidelined for several days.

Other casualties were Willie McClung and Fred Murphy, who went down in a collision near the end of the session. McClung's knee cracked against Murphy's helmet as the 265-pound tackle was pursuing the ball carrier.

Murphy was knocked out for a few moments, but left the field under his own power. McClung needed assistance to the dressing room, but his injury didn't appear serious.

Linebacker Bill Priatko intercepted two passes during the two-handed pass session. The absence of Kreitling and Ray Renfro's inability to catch the football because of a dislocated finger which still is in a cast, hampered the aerial game.

The Browns plan a scrimmage Saturday afternoon.

Decision On New League Due At Today's Meeting

By JOE MOOSHL

Associated Press Sports Writer CHICAGO (AP)—The Continental League, armed with all the answers, meets today with expansion committees of the American and National leagues in an effort to get baseball's third major league on its feet.

Bill Shea, founder of the Continental League, and Branch Rickey, its president, both feel they can answer the 10-point plan set up by the majors as a means of making the Continental League worthy of major league status. It includes such dictates as obtaining territories; minimum size of ball parks; salary minimums and pension plans for players; scheduled; population of cities to receive franchises; and acceptability of owners and officials.

One All-Star Game Is Set During 1962

NEW YORK (AP)—Major league club owners have agreed to the players' overwhelming desire for two All-Star games in 1961 but in 1962 and thereafter the leagues will revert to the traditional one game.

Commissioner Ford Frick Monday confirmed The Associated Press exclusive of last week that the two All-Star games policy will be retained for next year, the games to be played a month apart.

The first game will be played in Candlestick Park, home of the San Francisco Giants. The second game will be played in an Eastern city, exact site to be determined, but probably Boston.

No dates were specified but the first game probably will be played Tuesday, July 11 and the second game Tuesday, August, 8.

Orioles Gain Ground By Nipping Chisox, 2-1; Trail AL Leaders By 3

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer Paul Richards' surprising Orioles appear to have hit upon a winning formula which may pay off in the first pennant in Baltimore's brief American League history.

Actually, it's a double-aimed plan—win the close ones and knock off the top team.

The third-place Birds followed the blueprints to the letter Monday night, defeating the front running Chicago White Sox 2-1.

It was their 26th victory in 38 one-run decisions this year. It also was their ninth triumph over the White Sox in 16 meetings. No club has a better record in close games and no club has made a better showing against Chicago this year.

New York's runner-up Yankees trimmed Chicago's margin to a half game with a 3-2 triumph over the Detroit Tigers. Cleveland's fourth place Indians climbed to within six games of the top with a 3-0 victory over Washington. Kansas City outlasted Boston 10-8 in 10 innings.

There was no action in the National League.

Ron Hansen, a rookie and Gene Woodling, a veteran, collaborated to lead the Orioles to their narrow victory. Hansen opened the seventh with a double and scored the tie-breaking run on Woodling's pinch single.

Milt Pappas, who pitched hitless ball through the last five innings, was credited with his ninth victory. He has lost eight.

Although his White Sox lost, Manager Al Lopez was heartened by the pitching of Herb Score, who went all the way, giving up only seven hits. Better yet, he fanned nine and did not walk a batter.

Wise old Casey Stengel masterminded another victory for the Yankees. In the seventh inning against Detroit he called upon southpaw Luis Arroyo to protect a 3-2 lead for Ralph Terry. In the eighth, he replaced Hector Lopez in left field with Tony Kubek.

Arroyo hurled three scoreless innings to preserve Terry's fifth triumph. In the ninth, Kubek made a spectacular catch of Al Kaline's bid for a home run with a running, over-the-shoulder stab of the 415-foot drive in front of the bleachers.

Jim Perry, young sophomore right-hander, pitched the shutout for the Indians and Mike De La Hoz, rookie shortstop, figured in all of the Indians scoring with a pair of singles. Perry permitted the Senators only five hits for his 12th victory. He has lost five.

Pete Daley drove in four runs against his old Boston mates but it took a scoring double by Bill Tuttle in the tenth inning town for Kansas City. Daley had a three-run homer and two singles as the Athletics banged 17 hits off five Red Sox pitchers. Tom Borland (0-4) was the loser. The victory went to Mike Kutyna, last of four Kansas City hurlers.

The Indians scored two runs in the second inning on singles by Piersall and de la Hoz, a passed ball and a two-run single by Bubba Phillips. The latter played left field as a replacement for Francona, who has a leg injury.

The final run scored in the sixth when Piersall singled, stole second and rode home on de la Hoz's single.

Perry's whitewash job was his third of the season—all against the Senators. The 24-year-old fireballer struck out four and didn't issue a single walk.

Don Newcombe, acquired Friday night from the Cincinnati Redlegs, makes his pitching debut for the Indians tonight against Camilo Pascual.

Perry Blanks Senators On Three-Hitter

WASHINGTON (AP) — What's wrong with the Cleveland Indians?

By pitching a five-hit shutout in the Indians' 3-0 triumph over Washington Monday night, Jim Perry (12-5) proved—at least for one night—that all is well with the team.

But General Manager Frank Lane feels Cleveland has dropped out of pennant contention because of the failure of three players to produce—pitcher Gary Bell and outfielders Tito Francona and Harvey Kuenn.

Has Jimmy Piersall's antics so disturbed his teammates that they have won only seven of the last 24 games?

"No," says Lane. "Piersall has driven in 52 runs. Has any other player on the club driven in more?"

"Our pitching has killed us," said Franck Frank. "and Bell has been the biggest disappointment. I don't know what the answer is with him. He keeps getting worse."

"Bell won 12 games in 1958 and 16 last year, so we thought he would continue to improve, but he hasn't. The way he's pitching now, he won't even win 16 this year."

Bell won five of his first six games, but now has a 9-9 record. Concerning Francona, Lane said: "I didn't think Tito would hit .363 again, but I did think he'd drive in more runs than he has and help us more with his bat (290)."

"He has hit in the cleanup spot about 90 per cent of the time and has driven in only 43 runs. Last year he hit 20 homers and now he has six."

And what about Kuenn, whom Lane got from Detroit in the trade for star slugger Rocky Colavito?

Driver Dies Attempting To Set New Mark

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah, (AP)—Athol Graham, 36, once said: "All my life, I've wanted to break the world's speed record." He died trying Monday.

The left rear wheel snapped off his 3,000-horsepower car as it was going 300 miles an hour. The car skidded, flipped and tumbled 4,000 feet before coming to a stop with Graham pinned underneath.

He was flown to a hospital in Salt Lake City but died minutes later.

The Salt Lake City mechanic told a newsman and close personal friend Sunday night that he thought he'd break the world record of 394 m.p.h. but added: "I certainly wish that all the people would say a prayer or two for me."

Marion Dunn, sports writer for the Salt Lake Tribune, said he thinks Graham was scared to death and not very happy about making the run.

"Athol told me last week," Dunn wrote in his column today, "I have a lot to tell you about my feelings toward this whole thing. I think a lot of it will shock you. When all this is over, let's you and me have a long talk."

Dunn said, "I think he was going to give me a story—a story that he was quitting the high-speed business."

Expenses had been piling up on Graham because of the time he took from his job and the money he spent to get his car ready.

The morning of the race Graham talked confidently but several of the newsmen covering the run felt something was wrong. One asked him if he had it to do all over again, would he do it?

After a moment Graham replied: "Yes, I guess I'd have to."

He built his car for about $2,500, not counting his time and skill and got it up to 344 m.p.h. last fall.

Mrs. Firestone Leaves Estate Of $1,905,000

AKRON, Ohio — The estate of the late Mrs. Laura An Firestone, wife of the president of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., is valued at $1,905,000 in papers filed in the Summit County Clerk's office.

The estate is to be divided equally among her daughters, Christy An and Judith An. Each daughter receives the income from her share of the estate until she is 25, receives half her share of the principal at that age and the balance at age 30.

Mrs. Firestone's husband, Raymond C., was named executor and trustee.

Bucs Open Home Stand With Dodgers Tonight

By The Associated Press
The National League pennant won't be decided this week but a little unscrupling should take place as all but one of the five top contenders clash head on.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, hottest club in the circuit despite its third-place post, open a four-game series with league-leading Pittsburgh tonight which conceivably could knock the Pirates out of first place.

Second-place Milwaukee, two games behind the Pirates, meet the fourth-place Cardinals in the first of an important three-game series. The Redbirds, winners of five straight following three losses to Pittsburgh, are only 4½ games off the pace and only a half game behind the Dodgers.

Seemingly in the best position, for the present, are the resurging San Francisco Giants. While the first four clubs are concentrating on each other, the fifth-place Giants will have a golden opportunity to reduce the 5½-game gap that separates them from the leader.

Starting with a two-night double-header tonight, the Giants will be in Philadelphia for four games with the seventh-place Phillies over whom they hold an 11-3 edge. The Giants, badly disorganized following the release of manager Bill Rigney in June, suddenly righted themselves two weeks ago and have won 10 of their last 13 games.

Littens Edge Woodbine, 2-0

Littens' Dave Myer and Woodbine's Dave Chetwynd hooked up in a tight pitcher's duel in a game which saw only seven hits before Littens squeezed out a 2-0 victory in the East Liverpool Pony League Monday at Dopler Field.

Myer allowed Woodbine four hits and fanned 11 while Chetwynd gave up only three safeties while striking out nine.

The winners pushed across single runs in the fifth and sixth innings for the margin.

Goodrich Agrees On Pay Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It was three down and one to go today in negotiations for new wage agreements among the Big Four rubber companies.

B. F. Goodrich Co. Monday became the third of the Big Four to sign a wage agreement. That leaves only U.S. Rubber Co. to negotiate an agreement with the United Rubber Workers Union U.R.W.

A union spokesman said "special problems" probably will delay the U.S. Rubber agreement a few days. Those negotiations, in Cincinnati, affect some 25,000 workers in 16 cities.

Agreements with Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. and Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. were reached Saturday. These pacts, along with the Goodrich agreement, must now be ratified by U.R.W. locals which are affected.

The three agreements cover some 51,000 workers and provide general wage increases of 9½ cents hourly, plus additional pay raises for skilled workers.

Current average hourly wage rates are $2.53 at U.S. Rubber, $2.72 at Goodyear, $2.85 at Firestone and $2.74 at Goodrich.

Yankee coach Bill Dickey, regarded as having done the most for Yogi Berra as a catcher, broke in with Little Rock in 1924.

Police are seeking Clarence Leon Raby, 26, of near Knoxville, in the robbery-slitting of an Anderson County merchant and the killing of a Union County deputy sheriff. The merchant was slain July 7. The deputy was killed Monday.

Another man was shot to death and his father wounded critically in an exchange of gunfire with police searching for Raby. Dan Cooper, 27, was killed and his father, Kaley Cooper, 52, was wounded by Knox County officers who were hunting for Raby with bloodhounds.

Knox County Sheriff E.B. Bowles said four of his deputies felled the Coopers after the latter opened fire at the officers with a rifle and shotgun. The sheriff said Kaley Cooper, shot in the arm and chest, had been charged with felonious assault with intent to murder.

Bowles said the Coopers, residents of the Heiskell community where Raby lives, had ambushed his officers. Heiskell is about 15 miles southeast of here. Authorities said Raby gunned down Ben DeVault, Union County deputy sheriff, after he and a brother, Lloyd, spotted the fugitive on a rural road 20 miles to the east.

DeVault, 58, shot at Raby in a truck which the latter commandeered from Fred Rutherford, a farmer, Raby armed with a pistol, felled the officer with a bullet in the head.

Raby and another Knox County man, Billy McCoy, 22, have been charged with murder in the hold-up-slitting of Frank C. Keith, 61, at his Andersonville, Tenn., store last month. Officers said two gunmen took about $1,000 from Keith before felling him with a shotgun blast.

Sir Rambler Sets Track Mark At Waterford Park

Sir Rambler smashed a two-year-old track record in the mile and sixteenth event by winning the featured seventh race before 2,771 fans Monday at Waterford Park.

Given the record breaking ride by leading jockey Francisco Samuell, Sir Rambler was clocked in 1:44 4-5 bettering the 1:45 flat turned in by Black Eye on June 14, 1958.

The winner paid $8.20, $5 and $3.40.

By riding two winners Monday, Samuell shot his winning mounts to 83, and established himself as the winningest jockey that has ever rode at a Waterford Park summer meeting.

Jockey Willie Hartack held the previous high of close to 80 winners.

A 6-3 combination on the first double was worth $75.80 while a 5-6 coupling returned $11.80.

Hubcap Thieves Fined $100 Each

Two men accused of stealing a hubcap from a car parked on Gaston St. Saturday night were fined and drew suspended jail terms Monday after hearings before Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin.

David Randolph, 1100 Dresden Ave., and Ronald Ficks of Lisbon R. D. 2 were fined $100 and costs each and given suspended three-month jail terms. The judge also suspended $50 of their fines pending good behavior.

The pair along with a third man, who later was absolved, were arrested at 11:20 p. m. Saturday on Gaston St., about 80 minutes after Jim Bise, 1009 St. Clair Ave., reported the hubcap missing and said a valve core had been cut from a 7.60-by-15-inch tire.

Pat Cooper, 478 Orchard Grove Ave., told police two hubcaps were stolen from his car parked at the rear of Westgate School Saturday night.

Kennedy Eyes Labor Boost For Johnson

By G. MILTON KELLY
HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy hoped today for an early formal endorsement from organized labor for his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Kennedy won the Democratic presidential nomination with strong backing from labor unions. His choice of Johnson of Texas to run for the vice presidency jolted many of his union backers. Some still are reported to be far from happy about it.

Kennedy scheduled meetings with Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, closely allied with the AFL-CIO and the powerful United Auto Workers Union. The senator also planned to confer with Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut and John M. Bailey, chairman of the Connecticut Democratic Committee.

David J. McDonald, president of the 1,100,000-member United Steelworkers Union, said here Monday he expects labor will support Johnson. McDonald had not been in Johnson's corner prior to the convention.

The announced purpose of his visit was to discuss with Kennedy the plight of the steel industry, which the senator said is operating at only 53 per cent of capacity. Kennedy said Congress when it reconvenes Monday could help by passing housing and federal school construction legislation, and by acting to ease credit and reduce interest rates.

McDonald said 100,000 steelworkers are idle and 300,000 are working less than 40-hour weeks.

Kennedy accused the Republican presidential nominee, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, of a "lack of basic beliefs." His statement endorsed one released by his headquarters in the name of nine Democratic gubernatorial and senatorial which asserted that Nixon "in the short span of 48 hours since his nomination has repudiated two key parts of the Eisenhower administration's program" — on defense spending and farm policy.

The statement cited Nixon's 14-point agreement with Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, on the defense issue, and asserted that Nixon had said Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson "is not good enough for him."

The Democratic nominee accused Nixon of a betrayal of Benson's farm policies, which he said Nixon helped to write and defend but now wants to disown.

U.S. 'Spy' Caught Russians Report

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviets today claimed to have captured an American spy they said was ordered to ferret out locations of Soviet intercontinental ballistic missiles and air defense installations.

The man was identified as V. M. Slavnov but the announcement by the National Security Committee did not give his nationality. It said he was captured in June as he tried to cross the border into Iran.

There was no immediate comment from either State Department or Central Intelligence Agency sources in Washington.

The announcement said Slavnov had been given special training in espionage in American intelligence schools in Limburg and Puentes, West Germany.

The security committee said Slavnov was to settle down in Leningrad and collect and transmit classified information on important defense and industrial installations in the Soviet Union.

The announcement said another part of Slavnov's mission was to obtain Soviet passports, identification cards, party and youth organization cards and the like for future spies headed for the Soviet Union.

Strike Threat Averted For Cincinnati Riders

CINCINNATI (AP) — A threatened strike of drivers and garage men for the Ohio Bus Lines was averted Monday night when negotiators settled their differences over the wording of a previously approved contract.

The drivers and garage men had threatened to strike at 3:50 a.m. Wednesday.

The two-year contract between the company and Local 159 of the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees was approved verbally six weeks ago.

A dispute arose over the written version but Charles Seipel, a company spokesman, blamed it on a "misunderstanding." John Clayton, union financial secretary, said both sides now are "quite happy."

Woman Faces Charge

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Municipal Judge James A. Young has refused to dismiss charges against Mrs. Mildred Roos of Rye Beach, one of three persons charged with selling alcoholic beverages to 15-year-old Robert Lavalley. The boy was killed by a train after he sat on the railroad tracks. He was said to be intoxicated. Mrs. Roos, 36, is a waitress at a Sandusky cafe. Judge Young also refused Mrs. Roos' request Monday for a change of venue.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Your advice to the three career girls who were planning a vacation together couldn't have been more stupid.

I'm a bachelor, aged 52, and I've vacationed all over the world these past 25 years. The idea of meeting a future husband while on a trip is insane. Any man with the brains of a monkey knows that he must see a woman in her natural environment before he can size her up as a wife.

Since these three girls have been in the business world for years and are still looking, it's apparent the men who know them have turned thumbs down. Your suggestion that they may be able to snag husbands if they split up shows how little you know about men.

You're no smarter than these three dummies who are out to trap some stupid male.—BACHELOR WHO KNOWS.

Dear Bachelor: You sound like a trusting soul with a charming personality. I can't understand why you're still single. Could it be that the women who saw you while vacationing, as well as in your natural environment turned thumbs down?

Please read the following letter:

Excellent Advice

Dear Ann: Your advice to the three career girls was excellent.

You told them to split up and not to hunt in packs.

For 15 years I made the same foolish mistake. A few years ago I decided to cut the party to one other gal. We settled on a cruise. At the last minute her mother became ill and my friend couldn't make the trip.

Panic-stricken, I went to the travel agency and tried to cancel out. The agent gave me a scolding and persuaded me that the best way for a single girl to travel is alone.

Well, Ann, on that trip I met my husband. I had plenty of younger competition on the cruise but I came away with the prize.

You may print my letter but don't name the city. My friends would surely recognize it and I couldn't take the ribbing.—LONE SCOUT.

Permanent Guest

Dear Ann: Your word is law at our house. Please help me.

Our three children are married. We are still in our middle 40s. I always dreamed of the day when I could have time for myself.

When our third daughter was married two years ago I thought, "At last—I can take things easier and my husband and I can have the house to ourselves."

Two months later my husband's mother died and he invited his dad to stay with us "for awhile." Pa is still here and I'm afraid he'll be there forever.

There are always three for breakfast and supper. We never go any place without Pa. I do his laundry and clean up after him. At times I get so fed up I'd like to go off and leave father and son to each other. Am I a stinker?—GLADYS.

Dear Gladys: Since Pa was invited to move in "for awhile" and not as a permanent guest, you have a just complaint.

Tell your husband that you long to be alone with him to enjoy his companionship. If you emphasize the positive (don't direct your remarks against Pa) your chances will be vastly improved. Lotsa luck.

Taste And Distaste

Dear Ann: A woman who is otherwise a stickler for etiquette has a habit of taking a lighted cigarette from her husband's lips and putting it to her lips. To me this looks unappealing and vulgar. How does it look to you?—AN OBSERVER.

Dear Observer: Unappealing and vulgar.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Reducers Should Set Goal Date

Wouldn't it be wonderful if this one summer could put you on the happy road to healthy, normal weight? With the game of calorie countdown you can set the date when you can expect to reach desirable weight. The secret is to start.

Was your enthusiasm sparked by the idea of slimming by Ida Jean Kain down with a friend, as suggested in yesterday's column? Did you suddenly think, "This is it...a challenge is just what I've needed?" Then act on it. Weigh in on a penny weighing machine and mail this weight record to an overweight friend, inviting her to reduce with you.

On second thought, you may hesitate to give away your avoirdupois secret. Don't be pounds foolish—whether or not you have the courage to tell it, weight is an "open" secret. Weigh in on the doctor's scales.

THE REDUCER who first reported success with the scales ticket plan played the game alone. She charted her weight losses with the scales tickets, the first one marked "203." That was two years ago. Today her weight is 140 pounds. She changed from a size 24½ to a 14½.

In case you want proof of the calorie system, one slimmer-downer reported:

"When I started counting calories last August 1, I weighed 235 pounds. Now (Feb. 16) I weigh 171 pounds, which is 64 pounds off. I'm 38 and I've always been real heavy. I lost weight before, but I did not count calories...this way is much, much better. I feel wonderful and I know I will stay slim."

Six months later: Your dietitian checked via long distance. Her weight? It's 165 pounds. She had maintained her March weight.

Columbus Faces Hike In Bus Fare Schedule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A judge has cleared the way for an increase in city bus fares.

Common Pleas Judge Dana F. Reynolds Monday dissolved a temporary restraining order that had frozen the fare rates since July 1.

This means that Columbus Transit Co. bus fares will go up five cents either this week or next.

The new fare will be 25 cents or four bus tickets for 90 cents. The current rate is 20 cents or four tickets for 70 cents.

The new tickets were printed earlier in anticipation of the July 1 increase that was blocked when the city got a restraining order.

City officials now indicate they will file an appeal.

Ohio Has 235 Persons For Each Square Mile

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's 40,972 square miles support 235 persons per square mile, a report released by the Census Bureau shows. The Buckeye State has a population of 9,627,371.

The bureau report Monday said the population density of the United States actually decreased in the 1950-60 decade despite an increase of 28 million in the population. Alaska made the difference.

This dieter reduced at the rate of 8 pounds a month. If you draw on stored fat for approximately 1,000 calories a day, in one week you will be 2 pounds lighter. A pound of body fat furnishes 3,500 calories. Continue the calorie subtraction and in 10 weeks you will be 20 pounds lighter.

At the start of a reducing diet you may lose faster than two pounds a week — in fact, four or five pounds the first week, but part will be water weight. Or, your weight may not change for an annoying two weeks, due to a temporary shift in water balance. Don't be defeated if your first two scales tickets show no loss... following that you will lose abruptly and catch up to the steady loser.

WEDNESDAY Breakfast

Sliced peach on shredded wheat biscuit; whole milk, ½ cup; sugar, 1 rounded teaspoon, and coffee, black. Man and teen-ager: Toast—1 thin slice—½ pat butter.

Teen-agers: Add glass of whole milk.

Lunch

Hot tomato bouillon with herbs or chilled tomato juice, depending on weather; open face sandwich of sliced hard cooked egg, thin slice bread and lettuce, thinly spread mayonnaise; man and teen-agers: 2nd slice toast, lightly buttered; and ripe banana, large.

Teen-agers: Add glass of whole milk.

Afternoon Pick-up—glass of buttermilk or skim milk.

Dinner

Savory meat loaf, 2 slices, ¼" thick (Lean ground beef and veal, onion and green pepper); choice of corn on cob or parsley potato; butter, ½ pat; asparagus, 6 spears; molded cucumber salad on lettuce (Lime or lemon gelatin); melon ball fruit cup with sprig of mint, and beverage, hot or cold.

Total calories—Woman 1,040; man 1,190; teen-ager 1,520.

Men may add 100 calories in any food or drink.

Man Falls From Boat, Killed When It Circles

REED CITY, Mich. (AP)—A Toledo, Ohio, man drowned in Big Star Lake Monday after the propeller of a motorboat struck him when he was thrown from the craft.

State police said the victim, Thomas Collins, 26, was riding on the side of the outboard-powered boat and grabbed the steering wheel when he was jolted by a wave. The boat went into a tight turn, and Collins and a companion, Thomas Berce, were thrown into the water. As the craft continued to turn, the propeller hit Collins. His body was recovered.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I shorten a too-long electric cord without the necessity of cutting and splicing?

A. Wind the cord around a pencil, beginning at the plug and winding upward until it is the desired length, and leave it wound for about 24 hours. Repeat this procedure about once monthly, and the resultant spiral of cord will stay put and keep the excess length down to a minimum.

Q. How can I cause enamel paint to flow on more easily and smoothly?

A. You can do this if you'll place your can of enamel in a pan of hot water for awhile before beginning your job.

Q. How can I prevent olive oil from becoming rancid?

A. Add two lumps of sugar to a quart of jar of the olive oil.

The Delegates Were 'Well-Behaved'

Now that the Democrats have had their week, and the Republican conventioners have had theirs, it behooves us to declare, "Weren't the delegates well behaved?"

We say "well-behaved." In more knowledgeable circles, they say "restrained," one more thing that television hath wrought!

When the eyes of America are upon them, the delegates become "sheepish, restrained, less inclined to whoop it up."

This educated observation comes from one who's attended his eighth political convention, CBS' news chief, Sig Mickelson, and he rates it as one of the most significant changes among conventioners since television invaded their privacy.

"AS AN OBSERVER," said Mickelson, "I find it an interesting evolution. Where delegates once let themselves go in some of the wildest, shouting demonstrations, they now seem almost unenthusiastic."

"They're not, of course. It's just that they know they're being watched by the whole country and this inhibits them, apparently makes them think twice before speaking, or getting involved in synthetic demonstrations which, under the all-seeing eye of the TV camera, come off as they are — synthetic."

"Maybe you've also noticed that the speeches have been shorter. This, too, is something television has done."

What Mickelson says, in effect, is that television gradually is converting the political convention from a three-ring circus into a businesslike meeting. For this, the industry deserves nothing short of a gold star!

NANETTE FABRAY has found a willing sponsor for her semi-biographical series, "Yes, Yes, Nanette," created by her husband, Ronald MacDougall. The show comes on NBC beginning Jan. 6.

As if Gardner McKay, the so-called "wildly beautiful" actor, isn't enough decoration for "Adventures in Paradise," the show's management has employed Sondra Sodsai, "Miss Thailand" in the 1960 "Miss Universe" contest, as a regular.

Small wonder David Ladd, 12-year-old son of Alan Ladd, isn't available for TV! The boy draws $25,000 per movie. He's told dad to forget the weekly allowance...

The Russians now claim 34 million TV sets, making them the third in the world market, following the United States and England. ABC news hands who were in Chicago, from V. P. John Daly down, attribute the network's superior convention pictures to director Marshall Diskin, who's at home at political conventions. He's covered nine of them.

Still another situation comedy series: "Uncle Willie," which producer Jerry Layton is preparing for the new season, possibly with Charles Ruggles in the star role.

SHAPELY CBS reporter Nancy Hanschman was caught with her answers down when she approached Sen. Kenneth B. Keating at the Republican convention, and, after asking if he would take the vice presidential nomination, recalled that Benjamin Franklin once said he didn't think it was "a very useful office."

Retorted Keating: "Don't you think the vice presidents of CBS amount to anything?"

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

School Laggards Need Reading Help

If your child last school term lagged in one or more subjects, this may be a good time to provide him with some help. In the remains of the summer weeks of vacation he might gain enough to resume his school work in September with considerable success. You can hope for best results if your child will not consider such a program a punishment but an opportunity, and if you can win his co-operation. You yourself might be able to teach him half an hour or so a day. But it may not be easy for you to hold to a regular daily program or to be always calm and patient.

Consider hiring a quiet stranger to help him. The more trained and skillful this person, of course, the better. You should expect to pay from $2 to $5 a session for this service — inexpensive at that and a profitable investment.

AS A RULE, it's better to have your child meet with the tutor at some place away from your home. Whether your school-lagging child is in the primary, upper grades or high school, his main sources of trouble are almost surely in reading.

If, for instance, he lagged in such subjects as science or the social sciences, his poor reading made it hard for him to get facts and ideas from the printed page. The longer he is in school, the more his poor reading will hamper his progress. It would be wonderful if he could have help at a reading clinic or by a reading expert.

Whoever is going to help this child read better must use reading material that is interesting to him and in language easy enough for him to read well. There's not much sense in his reading from books of the grade level in which he worked when vacation began last June.

THE POOR READER might gain most from reading to a child as young as five, six or seven, to amuse this child. Also he might gain much by reading items interesting to him from the newspaper.

If you receive a local paper which prints items about people he knows, he might be encouraged to read from it, now and then telling you for pleasure the content of the item or reading it aloud to you. The more eagerly you listen, the more he will enjoy this voluntary activity.

My bulletins, "Home Helps for Poor Readers I & II" and "Helping Child with Lessons at Home," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

61 New Judges Seen Needed In U.S. Courts

CLEVELAND (AP)—The chief Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, says at least 61 new judges are needed in federal district courts and appeals courts throughout the country.

Judge John Biggs Jr., of Philadelphia, spoke Monday at the opening session of the 32nd annual conference of the Federal Court Clerks Association. He said the average case load is 270 for each of the 245 judges sitting in the 88 district courts and 68 judges in the 11 circuits of the appeals courts. "It is quite clear," he said, "that unless Congress takes a liberal position, the shortage will grow and we will have continued rising case loads."

Some 40 Midland boys and girls registered and began junior and senior Red Cross life saving courses Monday at the Veterans Memorial Pool.
